

Rectal MRI virtual handson workshop

Programme

Both days are a combination of lectures and periods of self study.

Gina is keen to maintain informality and so adapts to the delegates' preferences on each day; the below structure, therefore, is a guideline only.

For the periods of self study at the end of Day One and the beginning of Day Two the times quoted are for information only – there is no expectation as to the length of time delegates spend in the self study sessions.
